SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. Gerald Decruz, a suspected Communist, left Singapore on 17 December 1948 aboard the Rajula, a ship carrying Indian deportees to India. Decruz carried British passport number 7267, issued 9 December at Singapore.
2. Decruz landed at Madras on 26 December. In Madras, he was seen at the Bosotto, Victoria, and Clarence hotels, but registered at none. He was also seen coming and going from Communist Party headquarters. Decruz bought a second-class one-way ticket by rail to Colombe, but then also purchased a second-class one-way ticket to Bombay (number 34372). Decruz departed from Madras on the evening of 28 December on the train, the "Bombay Mail", which was due to arrive in Bombay on the morning of 30 December. Although it had previously been believed that Decruz was on his way to Karachi to work for the New Tide Press, it is possible that he is en route to Moscow.
